Dear Senior Taxpayer,

This is your 2022 application for the Senior Citizen Assessment Freeze Homestead Exemption. Please take this opportunity to file this form for the 2022 (taxes payable 2023) assessment year. Remember that "HOUSEHOLD INCOME" includes you, your spouse, and all other persons who used your residence as a principal dwelling place on January 1, 2022.

Please note:

- The annual application will be mailed to your requested mailing address in March every year. Please wait until you receive your annual application in the mail to notify your township or the county assessment office.
- Please bring in your proof of income for verification.
- This Freeze form no longer needs to be notarized!!
- To qualify for the Senior Freeze, at least one of the owners of your household must be 65 or older by December 31, 2022 AND you have "household income" not greater than $65,000 in 2021.
- If your 2021 income is greater than $65,000, you may disregard this form. If your income in a subsequent year meets the income requirements, you may apply at that time.

Both your county assessment office and the local township office are happy to assist you with this application. If you would like assistance, please bring your IRS Federal Tax Return with you when applying for this exemption. If you or another member of the household is not required to file a federal tax return, then you MUST provide a copy of your SSA-1099 and all 1099 forms for annuities, 401Ks, other pensions, interest income, rental income, life insurance dividends, etc.

The county assessment office staff will be available to assist you during our normal business hours (8:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday). Our office information is listed above.

Your township assessment office is also available to assist you. Their contact information is provided above. Please contact the township for their office hours.

You may also complete this application on your own, and mail or bring the form in person, at one of the offices as listed above. If mailing in the form, please provide a copy of your income.

The deadline for filing this application is July 1, 2022.

Senior Citizen Assessment Freeze Homestead Exemption Frequently Asked Questions

What is the “Senior Freeze” Exemption?

The Senior Citizens Assessment Freeze Homestead Exemption reduces the EAV of a home by the difference between the 2022 EAV and the EAV of the “Base Year”. The base year generally is the year prior to the year the taxpayer first receives the exemption. This exemption does not freeze the amount of a property tax bill, which could change if the tax rate changes. The assessment and tax bill may increase if improvements are added to the home. However, if the EAV of the home decreases in the future, the taxpayer will benefit from any reduction.

Who is eligible?

To qualify to renew the Senior Citizen Assessment Freeze Homestead Exemption, one of the owners of the property must:

- Be 65 years of age or older during 2022; and
- Own the property or have an equitable interest in it by written instrument, or had a leasehold interest in the single family home (if the ownership is via a life estate, the instrument that grants the life estate must be recorded with the Rock Island County Recorder); and
- Use the property as your principal residence on both January 1, 2021 and January 1, 2022; and
- Have a total household income of $65,000 or less in 2021; and
- Were liable for the payment of property taxes.

SPECIAL SITUATIONS:

- If your spouse died in 2022 and would have qualified for the exemption in 2022, and you meet all requirements except the age requirement, you are eligible for this exemption in 2022.
- If the qualifying taxpayer received the Senior Freeze in the past, but is now a resident of a facility that is a facility licensed under the Assisted Living and Shared Housing Act, the Nursing Home Care Act, the Specialized Mental Health Rehabilitation Act of 2013, or the ID/DD Community Care Act, and your property is unoccupied or is occupied by the spouse of the qualifying taxpayer, the property may be eligible if the other requirements are met.
- If you are a resident of a cooperative apartment building or cooperative life-care facility, you may qualify for this exemption if you are liable for the payment of property taxes on your residence and meet the other eligibility requirements.
- You DO NOT qualify for this exemption if your property is assessed under the mobile home privilege tax.

What is a household?

A household means the applicant, the applicant’s spouse, and all persons who use the residence of the applicant as their principal dwelling place on January 1, 2022, whether they pay rent or not.

What is included in household income?

Household income includes your income, your spouse’s income, and the income of all persons living in the household. Examples of income are listed below. (For specific questions, see P. 4, Part 2)

- Alimony or maintenance received
- Annuities and other pensions
- Black Lung benefits
- Business income, including capital gains (See the specific instructions on page 4 for lines 8, 9 and 10)
- Cash assistance from the Illinois Department of Human Services and/or any other governmental cash assistance
- Cash winnings from such sources as raffles, lotteries, and gambling
- Civil Service benefits
- Damages awarded in a lawsuit for nonphysical injury or sickness (for example, age discrimination or injury to reputation)
- Dividends
- Farm income

- Illinois Income Tax Refund (only if you received Form 1099-G)
- Interest, including interest received on life insurance policies
- Long term care insurance (federally taxable portion only)

- Rental income
- Social Security income (including Medicare deductions)
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits
- Unemployment compensation (all)
- Wages, salaries, and tips from work
- Workers’ Compensation Act Income
- Workers’ Occupational Diseases Act income

What is not included in household income?

Examples of income that are not included in household income are listed below (For specific income questions, see P. 4, Part 2)

- Cash gifts and loans
- Child support payments
- COBRA Subsidy Payments
- Damages paid from a lawsuit for a physical injury or sickness
- Energy Assistance payments
- Federal income tax refunds
- IRAs “rolled over” into other retirement accounts, unless “rolled over” into a Roth IRA
- Lump sums from inheritances or insurance policies
- Money borrowed against a life insurance policy or from any financial institution
- Reverse mortgage payments

What if I have a net operating loss or capital loss carryover from a previous year?

You cannot include any carryover of net operating loss or capital loss from a previous year. You can include only a net operating loss or capital loss that occurred in 2021 up to the maximum allowed by the government for federal tax returns.

Will my information remain confidential?

All information received from your application is confidential and may be used only for official purposes.

When must I file?

If you are eligible for the Senior Citizen Assessment Freeze Homestead Exemption, you should file this form with the County Assessment Office by July 1, 2022. You must file an application every year to continue to receive this exemption. The eligibility requirements listed under “Who is eligible?” must be met each year. Additional documentation (i.e., birth certificates, tax returns, etc.) may be required by the County Assessment Office to verify the information in this application.

What if I need additional assistance?

If you have questions about this form, please contact the Rock Island County Assessment Office at (309) 558-3660.

Step by Step Instructions for Filing this Form

Part 1: Complete the following information

Application Data—Type or print your name, address, date of birth, phone number, and email address.

Lines 1 through 3—Follow the instructions on the form.

Line 4—Write the names, relationship to the applicant and date of birth for all other individuals, including your spouse, who used the property for their principal residence on January 1, 2022. Attach an additional sheet if necessary.

Part 2: Complete the 2021 income information for the entire household “Income” for this exemption means 2021 federal adjusted gross income, plus certain items subtracted from or not included in your federal adjusted gross income (320 ILCS 25/3.07). These include tax-exempt interest, dividends, annuities, net operating loss carryovers, capital loss carryovers, and Social Security benefits. Income also includes public assistance payments from governmental agency, Supplemental Security Income, and certain taxes paid. These step-by-step instructions provide federal return line references and reporting statement references, whenever possible. The amounts written on each line must include your 2021 income and the income of all the individuals living in the household.

Line 1—Social Security and Supplemental Security Income (SSI) Benefits Write the total amount of any retirement, disability, or survivor’s benefits (including Medicare deductions) the entire household received from the Social Security Administration. (Shown on Form SSA-1099, box 3 or use box 5 only if there is a reduction of benefits). You must also include any Supplemental Security Income (SSI) the entire household received and any benefits to dependent children in the household. Do not include reimbursements under Medicare/Medicaid for medical expenses. Note: The amount deducted for Medicare is already included in the amount in box 3 of Form SSA-1099.

Line 2—Railroad Retirement benefits Write the total amount of any retirement, disability, or survivor’s benefits (including Medicare deductions) the entire household received under the Railroad Retirement Act (shown on Forms SSA-1099 and RRB-1099).

Line 3—Civil Service benefits Write the total amount of any retirement, disability, or survivor’s benefits the entire household received under any Civil Service retirement plan (shown on Form 1099-R).

Line 4—Annuities and other Retirement Income Write the total income the entire household received as an annuity, endowment, life insurance contract or similar contract or agreement (shown on Form 1099-R). Include only the federally taxable portion of pensions, IRAs, and IRAs converted to Roth IRAs (shown on US 1040, Line 4b). IRAs are not taxable when “rolled over”, unless “rolled over” into a Roth IRA.

Line 5—Human Services and other governmental cash public assistance benefits Write the total amount of Human Services and other governmental cash public assistance benefits the entire household received. If the first two digits of any member’s Human Services case number are the same as any of those in the following list, you must include the total amount of any of these benefits on Line 5.

01—aged

02—blind

03—disabled

04 and 06— temporary assistance to needy families (TANF)

07—general assistance

To determine the total amount of the household benefits, multiply the monthly amount each person received by 12. You must adjust your figures accordingly if anyone in the household did not receive 12 equal checks during this period. Food stamps, medical assistance benefits anyone in the household may have received are not considered income and should not be added to your total income.

Line 6—Wages, salaries, and tips from work Write the total amount of wages, salaries, and tips from work, for every household member (shown in box 1 of form W-2).

Line 7—Interest and dividends received Write the total of all interest and dividends the entire household received from all sources, including any government sources (shown on Forms 1099-INT, 1099-OID, and 1099-DIV). You must include both taxable and nontaxable amounts.

Line 8—Net rental, farm, and business income or (loss) Write the total amount of any net income or loss from rental, farm, business sources, etc., the entire household received, as allowed on US 1040, Schedule 1, Lines 3, 5, and 6. You cannot use any net operating loss (NOL) carryover in figuring income.

Line 9—Net capital gain or (loss) Write the total amount of any taxable capital gain or loss the entire household received in 2021, as allowed on US 1040, Line 7 and US 1040 Schedule 1, Line 4. You cannot use a net capital loss carryover in figuring income.

Line 10—Other income or (loss) Write the total amount of any other income or loss not included in Lines 1 through 9 that is included in federal adjusted gross income, such as alimony received, unemployment compensation, taxes withheld from oil or gas well royalties. You cannot use any net operating loss (NOL) carryover in figuring income.

Line 11—Add Lines 1 through 10.

Line 12—Subtractions You may subtract only the reported adjustments to income totaled on US 1040, Schedule 1, Line 26. For example:

- Educator expenses
- Health savings account deduction
- IRA deduction
- Student loan interest deduction
- Tuition and fees deduction
- Jury duty pay you gave to your employer
- Archer MSA deduction
- Moving expenses
- Deductible part of self-employment tax
- Self-employed health insurance deduction
- Self-employed SEP, SIMPLE, and qualified plans
- Penalty on early withdrawal of savings
- Alimony or maintenance paid
- Domestic production activities deduction

Line 13—Total household income Subtract Line 12 from Line 11. If this amount is greater than $65,000, you do not qualify for this exemption.

Part 3: Complete this affidavit

Lines 1 through 5—Read the affidavit carefully. Check any statements that pertain to you; all statements must be marked.

Note: You must sign your application. Return your completed form to:
